Client Bill of Rights

Consumers of psychological services offered by psychologists licensed by the state of Minnesota have the right:

1. to expect that the provider has met the minimum qualifications of education, training, and experience required by state law for licensure;
2. to examine public records maintained by the Board of Psychology that contain the credentials of the provider;
3. to report complaints to the Board of Psychology;
4. to be informed of the cost of professional services before receiving the services;
5. to privacy as defined and limited by rule and law;
6. to be free from being the object of unlawful discrimination while receiving psychological services;
7. to have access to their records as provided in Minnesota Statutes, sections 144.291 to 144.298, except as otherwise provided by law or a prior written agreement;
8. to be free from exploitation for the benefit or advantage of the provider;
9. to terminate services at any time, except as otherwise provided by law or court order;
10. to know the intended recipients of psychological assessment results;
11. to withdraw consent to release assessment results, unless that right is prohibited by law or court order or is waived by prior written agreement;
12. to a nontechnical description of assessment procedures; and
13. to a nontechnical explanation and interpretation of assessment results, unless that right is prohibited by law or court order or is waived by prior written agreement.
